ABBREVIATIONS USED:

d.i. died in infancy; d.y. died young; s.p., sine prole, without issue; bp. baptized; c. about; the plus sign between the name and the person's number indicates that the child is carried to the next generation as a principal.

SCW refers to Mr. Wheat's book, 1903.

PREFACE

More than fifty years ago Silas Carmi Wheat published a genealogy, dealing primarily with the family of Moses Wheat (c. 1616-1700) of Concord, Massachusetts. The early generations of his descendants were given, as far as his great-grandsons, four brothers — Samuel, Salmon, Benjamin and Solomon. From there Mr. Wheat carried on only his own direct line from Solomon (died c. 1797). It was his intention to publish a second volume to cover the other three brothers, but after his sudden death in 1922 his valuable manuscript remained untouched. The present compiler, also a Wheat descendant, had for years been working on a Wheat genealogy, and finally Mr. Wheat's daughters with wonderful generosity gave her all their father's papers, in the hope that the work might eventually be completed.

This is not and cannot pretend to be a finished genealogy, but it appears at this time with the sole thought of saving it from the fate of so much unpublished material that is later scattered and lost. As nothing had been added to Mr. Wheat's MS between 1922 and 1942 when it was given to me, some families are not carried further than 1922 while others are brought down to the present. In order to avoid duplication the descendants of Solomon in Mr. Wheat's line are not given in detail but reference is made for further information to Vol. I by page.

The names of Wheat descendants are in capitals and each has a number, with the possible exception of some who died in infancy or childhood. Children are listed under the parents, but when grandchildren and even great-grandchildren follow immediately, the system of numbering may seem confused, as each generation is taken up separately. However, no difficulty should be found if the index in the back of the book is consulted.

There may be those who do not own Vol. I, Mr. Wheat's book published in 1903 but may wish to do so. A limited number of these remain and a special price is proposed when both volumes are ordered together.

In addition to the family of Moses Wheat of Massachusetts, that of Francis Wheat (born probably between 1690 and 1705) of Maryland is included; no connection between them in England has been found, though it may well exist. Francis is thought to have come to this country in 1724, and owned a large plantation on the site of the present city of Washington, D.C.

Records of several unplaced families are also included, with the hope that they may eventually find homes in the Wheat field, and quantities of items from books, magazines and newspapers, old and new, have been collected but are too numerous to add here.

Since this record is not complete it is hoped that descendants will consider it as a framework only, to be corrected and amplified by them. The compiler welcomes additional information and corrections.

MOSES WHEAT OF MASSACHUSETTS AND DESCENDANTS

1 MOSES[1] WHEAT (-1700); probably from Southwark, London; to Concord, Mass. before 1640; married TAMZEN ——(-1689); SCW pp. 42-55.

2 i MOSES[2] (-1641)

3 ii SAMUEL[2] (1640-1714); married Abigail (Waite) Baker, not Ballard; she married 3rd, Boaz Brown.

4 iii HANNAH[2] (1641/2 — d.i.)

5 iv HANNAH[2] (1642/3-); married Samuel Stratton.

6 v REBECCA[2] (1644-1721); unmarried.

7 vi JANE[2] (-1648)

8 vii MOSES[2] (-1720); unmarried.

9 vii JOHN[2] (1649-1715?); unmarried.

10 ix SARAH[2] ( ); married 1) John Bicknell, not Bigelow, of Charlestown, Mass; 2) Isaac Hill, of Cambridge and Malden, Mass. Children: i) John Bicknell; ii) Joseph Bicknell; iii) Moses Hill; iv) Tamzen Hill; v) Abraham Hill; vi) Mary Hill; vii) Isaac Hill.
A descendant in the 7th generation was Ralph Waldo Emerson.

11 x AARON[2] (-1658); unmarried.

12 + xi JOSHUA[2] (-1708)

Only Sarah and Joshua left descendants and Joshua alone of the Wheat name.

12 JOSHUA[2] WHEAT (Moses[1]). (-1708); married Elizabeth Mansfield. SCW pp. 55-57.

13 i MOSES[3] (1676-1676).

14 + ii SAMUEL[3] (1677-1735).

15 + iii JOSEPH[3] (c. 1679-1760).

16 + iv JOSHUA[3] (-1762).

17 v MOSES[3], born Sept. 1686; died before 1726. Marriage intentions published June 10, 1710 with his cousin Deborah Mansfield of Lynn, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Williams) Mansfield. But on Oct. 21, 1712 she married Joseph Ramsdell at Lynn. No further record has been found of Moses, and he may have been the JOHN WHEAT who enlisted in Her Majesty's military service, Oct. 10, 1710 and served in Major Gilbert Abbot's company at Annapolis Royal, and died Mar. 17, 1711 after 158 days. (New Hampshire State Papers).

14 SAMUEL[3] WHEAT (Joshua[2], Moses[1]) was born July 31, 1677 at Concord, Mass. and died in 1735 in Bermuda, ae 58. He married 1) Lydia —, who died Apr. 6, 1720 ae 44 and is buried at Needham, Mass. A brown headstone in the cemetery there is inscribed — "Here Lyes ye Body of Mrs. Wheat Wife of Doctr. Samuel Wheat Who Decd April ye 6th 1720. Aged 44 years."

He married 2) Nov. 8, 1720, Mary Chadwick who survived him and married 2) at Springfield, Henry Gilbert of Brookfield, Mass., son of Thomas Gilbert of Springfield.

Samuel Wheat was a physician, gained distinction in his profession and acquired a fair estate. He owned land in several towns, and resided in turn in Concord, Newton, Watertown, Needham, Cambridge and Roxbury, Mass. On June 6, 1722 he "of Needham" bought from Daniel Hastings his home at the east corner of Brattle and Mason streets, Cambridge. (History of Cambridge, Lucius R. Page, p. 576). A smith shop was included on the property.

Apr. 25, 1735. Samuel Wheat of Roxbury, and wife Mary, sold land for £100.

It has not been discovered why Dr. Wheat was in Bermuda at his death, nor where he is buried, but Mary Wheat of Watertown, widow of Dr. Samuel Wheat late of Bermudas in the West Indies asked for administration on the estate, and on Aug. 1, 1735 Dr. Samuel Wheat of Newton (his son) was appointed administrator. (Suffolk Co. Probates). The widow accepted £166. as her dowry. The remainder was divided into five equal parts — two for Samuel, who must pay all debts, and one for each of his brothers, who would be Salmon, Benjamin, and Solomon.

"Mary Wheat is Come to Dwell in the Town of Watertown and Now Dwels in The House of Benjn. Chadwick in sd Town: Shee Came Last from Newton on or about the month of August last past. the Selectman Refuse to Accipt hir as an Inhabitant . . . to warn the Sd Mary Wheat to Depart out of Watertown. 17 Day Nov. 1735." (Watertown Records, III, p. 131)

18 + i SAMUEL[4] (1703-1770).

19 + ii SALMON[4] (1705/6-1788).

20 + iii BENJAMIN[4] (c. 1709-1758).

21 + iv SOLOMON[4] (-1796 or '97).

22 v JEMIMA[4], born May 8, 1713; probably d.y.

23 vi KEZIAH[4], twin; probably d.y.

Bond's "Watertown" calls the twins JENNISON and LYDIA, causing much fruitless searching and the thought that the mother, Lydia, might be a JENNISON, but the original record gives the names as above.

24 vii possibly ELIZABETH[4], bap. May 12, 1723, by the second wife. The records of the First Church of Cambridge give the baptism; "at the same time the mother Elizabeth owned the covenant". The name of the mother is a mistake or there may have been another Samuel Wheat with wife Elizabeth in Cambridge at that time.

15 JOSEPH[3] WHEAT (Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born c. 1679 probably in Groton, Mass.; died Apr. 26, 1760 (Bond's Watertown). Joseph Wheat and "Pricillah" Flagg, both of Concord, married June 5, 1705 by Justice Minott. (Concord VR). She was daughter of Eleazer Flagg of Watertown and his wife, Deborah (Wright), widow of John Barnes.

He was a farmer and weaver and lived at Concord, Mass. in that part set off in 1735 as Lincoln.

Aug. 8, 1700. Moses Wheat sells to "my cousin" (nephew)

Joseph Wheat of Concord for 20/ a year, a half interest in 7 acres. Oct. 5, 1700, John Wheat deeded to "my cousin (nephew) Joseph Wheat of Concord for good will' a one-third interest in 146 acres. Joseph's parents were then living in Groton, so it may be inferred that Joseph lived with his uncles in 1700, and that his twenty-first birthday occurred in that year.

Jan. 31, 1706. Joshua Wheat sells to "my son Joseph Wheat for £20 all of his land. Feb. 20, 1706. Moses Wheat deeded to "my cousin Joseph Wheat for care during life" all his land, 50 acres. Later he assigned to Joseph his right in land that might be granted for his military service against King Philip. Joseph had brothers living at the time but he alone received gifts of land from his uncles.

In 1735 the General Assembly granted a large tract of land for military service, and Joseph in the right of his uncle Moses Wheat received a lot in tract No. 6, later incorporated as the town of Templeton, Mass. In 1749 he conveyed a part of this land "to my beloved son Josiah Wheat" and in 1751 the rest to his daughter, Abigail Wheat. From 1739 to 1748 he made four deeds to his son John Wheat of Lincoln. Thus he followed the examples of his father and his uncle Moses in disposing of his property before his death.

Children of Joseph and Priscilla (Flagg) Wheat, from printed records of Concord, Lincoln and Hollis, N.H.

25 i DEBORAH[4], born Mar. 1704/5; she has been doubted by a descendant, perhaps on account of her birth date, but the date may be wrong; she would be named for her mother.

26 ii ELIZABETH[4], born Sept. 4, 1706.

27 iii JOSEPH[4], born Nov. 28, 1710, Concord; Joseph Wheat and Susanna Stoutenburg, both of Concord, married Oct. 12, 1749 by Justice Minott. They may have settled in Worcester county and raised a family including — 74 + i) JOSEPH[5], born c. 1754; of Spencer, Mass.

75 ii) DELILAH[5], born c. 1760; married Jan. 19, 1786 at Milford, Mass. Reuben Al-

bee. (Or she may have been a daughter of SALMON).

28 iv ABIGAIL[4], born Feb. 24, 1712/13; married at Hollis, N. H., May 1, 1754, Timothy Cook. Her father, Joseph Wheat, in 1751 conveyed to her part of the lot in tract Narragansett No. 6, later incorporated as the town of Templeton, Mass. Her brother Thomas lived at Hollis and she may have gone there with him.

29 + v JOHN[4], born Aug. 14, 1717; died Jan. 28, 1784.

30 + vi JOSIAH[4], born Mar. 11, 1719/20; died 1759.

31 vii MARY[4], born c. 1721/2; died 1767; married Feb. 26, 1738, Samuel Stearns jr., born Feb. 21, 1714. They had 16 children; lived in Leominster and Ashby, Mass. He married 2) Lucretia Seavy, 3) Abigail Gilbert, and had seven more children, 23 in all but 4 died as infants.

89 i) RUTH[5] STEARNS, 8th child, born Apr. 20, 1752 or 1755; married in 1774, Joseph Damon of Reading, Mass. After the birth of three children they removed to Caledonia Co., Va. where she died in 1826. (See Stearns Genealogy, Van Wagenen, 1901, vol. II, 58-9).

32 + viii THOMAS[4], born May 12, 1723; died Feb. 12, 1820.

33 ix BENJAMIN[4], born Feb. 28, 1724/5; died Apr. 13 following.

34 RICHARD WHEAT of Boston, truckman; married Elizabeth Crawfort, bp. at the church in Battle Square, Aug. 27, 1721 and joined Sept. 3 following. He joined the Old South Church, Boston, June 21, 1741.

Mar. 10, 1761, the Boston Selectmen agree "that Mr. Wheat's child may be Removed from his house to Dr. Gardner's Hospital with Bedding Clothes, etc." They had 8 children, bp. 1745-1762.

Apr. 22, 1765, administration on the estate of Richard Wheat granted to the widow Elizabeth Wheat of Boston; Bondsmen, Shippie Townsend, blockmaker, and Saml. Barrett, Gent.
Mr. S. C. Wheat thought he might belong in this family but was more likely to be a recent arrival from England.

16 JOSHUA[3] WHEAT (Joshua[2], Moses[1]) born at Groton, Mass. but date not found; died Mar. 2, 1762 "at Mr. Jonathan Huntting's" at Needham, Mass. (Records of the First Church).

Joshuay Wheat and Elesebeth Edey (or Eddy), both of Watertown, married Feb. 5, 1719. (Medford, Mass. VR). She was born July 29, 1703, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Woodward) Eddy of Watertown.

He was a physician; in 1726 as of Weston he signed with other heirs of his father but his name has not been found on any other deed, and there is no evidence that he received any part of his father's estate except his portion of the £63 from the will of his aunt Abigail Brown.

In 1729 they removed to Needham but were "warned out" and again from Worcester in the August term 1735 (Worcester Town Records, 132). He continued to be unfortunate.

Dr. Joshua Wheat, wife Elizabeth and 4 children warned to depart out of Westborough, May term 1737 (Court of General Sessions, p. 182)

Joshua, wife and children warned from Southborough, Aug. 16, 1737 (Worcester Co. Warnings, p. 66, edited by Blake, 1899).

Children of Dr. Joshua and Elizabeth (Eddy) Wheat:

35 i LYDIA[4], bp. as infant, Sept. 19, 1725; married Dec. 24, 1747, Joseph Esterbrook, both of Concord, by Rev. Daniel Bliss. Joseph was born Apr. 1, 1726, son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Parker) Esterbrook. 4 children.

36 ii SARAH[4], bp. at Needham, May 19, 1728; died at Sturbridge, Mass. July 8, 1772 in her 45th year; married at Medway, June 4, 1750, Capt.

Henry Clark, born c. 1729; died at Sturbridge, where they lived, of old age, Feb. 20, 1816 ae 86. He married 2) Apr. 27, 1773, Martha (Hubbard) Bond, died June 13, 1804 in her 76th year, widow of Lieut. Nathaniel Bond who had died May 14, 1771 in his 45th year.

6 children.

37 iii RUTH[4], bp. at Needham, Sept. 21, 1746; died at Sturbridge Nov. 6, 1820 ae 86. She married 1) Sept. 28, 1752, Samuel Glover, son of John and Lydia (Northcott) Glover of Dorchester, born July 28, 1730; died 1756 at or near Albany, N. Y., a soldier in the French & Indian War.

She married 2) Jan. 9, 1761, intentions, Joseph Mason, whose 1st wife, Sarah, died Apr. 3, 1760. Her marriage contract with Joseph Mason allows her to keep her son Samuel Glover until he is 14 years old; Sturbridge, Mar. 17, 1761.

One record says they removed to Belchertown, Mass. "where she died at the home of her stepson, Amos Mason" (why not her son?)

104 i) THOMAS[5] GLOVER, born 1753; died as infant.

105 ii) ANN[5] GLOVER, born June 26, 1755; died the following Sept. 20.

Any household furniture that may be left after Hannah's death to be divided among the 6 daughters: all books of History and Divinity to be divided among William, Samuel and the 6 daughters. Executors are wife Hannah and friend Lindsey George Wallis. Wits: Samuel Hastings, Jonathan Jones, John Savage.

Sept. 17, 1770. Boston. Lindsey George Wallis declines to act. Hannah gives bond, Sept. 18, and signs X. Jonathan Jones is an innholder.

Abraham Fuller, Capt. Joshua Fuller and Mr. Peter Durell, all of Newton, to make inventory. Jan. 22, 1771; £151.17.0, personal and stock (including ½ a colt).

(Original in Middlesex Co. Probates, Mass.)

The estate seems to have been valued too high by the testator and badly managed. The son, Samuel Wheat of Providence and wife Jerusha, deeded their interest in the estate for £200, June 7, 1771. As late as Sept. 18, 1792, after the death of his widow, Hannah, the estate owed unpaid legacies of £260.14.0: one item is for last illness and funeral, £10.8.0 due Capt. Thomas Eustis, the son-in-law. The heirs finally received only 3/6 on the pound.

(Original papers, Middlesex Co. Probates)

51 xiii JOHN[5], born July 31, 1751; died Aug. 29, 1751.

The History of Newton gives Ann, without dates, between vi and vii, and Patty between viii and ix, and others, probably errors.

19 SALMON[4] WHEAT (Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born at Watertown, Mass. Jan. 7, 1705/6; died in 1788 in the 83rd year of his age (gravestone in the Shaftsbury Center, Vt. cemetery).

Married 1) Jan. 1, 1729/30, Marcy Gale (Mary Geal in Bailey's Conn. Marriages). She was born Dec. 7, 1710 at Watertown, daughter of Richard and Sarah (Knight) Gale of Watertown, Mass. and Canterbury, Conn. She died between 1751 and 1757 as on Jan. 13, 1757 he married 2) at Mendon, Mass. Abigail White.

When Salmon Wheat went to Connecticut with his letter from the Church at Watertown to the Church at Canterbury he was bidden to wait under the watch and guard of the church until the elders and members should decide whether he, or anyone, might be received by letter or must come in by repentance and confession of the faith. In this as in all Connecticut churches the path to Heaven was walled up except for a very narrow gate through which only one person at a time was permitted to pass by dint of hard squeezing. Fourteen years later, after spirited debates during the winter, a motion to admit to full communion those who brought letters from orthodox churches was "passed by a clear majority". Apr. 7, 1743 "at a meeting of the First Church of Christ in Canterbury, Deacon Backus being moderator and Obediah Johnson clerk, a group including Salmon Wheat, all producing certificates from the pastors of divers churches with consent of the bretheren that they were in full communion and regular standing in said churches and being recommended to the watch and care of this church it was voted that they (be) admitted to all church priviliges in this church".

He was a weaver and is so called in 1726 and '27 when he and his brother Samuel buy and sell land in Newton, Mass. and he and his wife Marcy owned land in Canterbury. In 1729 her uncles, Abraham, Ebenezer and John Gale quit claim to Marcy and her five sisters as heirs of their brother Richard Gale lately deceased their right in land in Canterbury. The mother of the girls, Sarah Gale of Canterbury, married 2) June 10, 1731 at Norwich, Samuel Manning of Windham.

Salmon was in Killingly, Conn. in 1745 and '46; in Plainfield, Conn. in 1751; then to Amenia, New York, in the Nine Partners tract, and on Apr. 30, 1764 Salmon Wheat from the Delaware River was warned from Mendon, Mass. Sometime between 1772 and '88 he went to Vermont and spent his last days with his son Jonathan probably, in Shaftsbury.

Owing to the lack of vital records in New York State, the families who went over into the counties west of the Hudson River are very difficult to trace, and neither Silas C. Wheat nor the present compiler can vouch for the accuracy of records of the descendants of Salmon Wheat.

Children of Salmon and Marcy (Gale) Wheat; 1st 4 recorded at Canterbury.

52 i LYDIA[5], born Mar. 22, 1732/3.

53 + ii JONATHAN[5], born Apr. 1, 1735; died Dec. 10, 1809.

54 iii EUNICE[5], born Sept. 15, 1739.

55 + iv ELISHA[5], born Nov. 7, 1742.

56 + v JERUSHA[5], born Aug. 29, 1746.

57 + vi SOLOMON[5], born Aug. 2, 1751.

58 + vii SAMUEL[5], born before 1761; died 1811.

59 viii JAMES[5], He was a soldier in the Revolution, private in 2nd Regt., Capt. Isaac Bogert, May 11, 1780. Probably lived in Otisville, N. Y.

60 + ix AMOS[5], born Aug. 4, 1758.

20 BENJAMIN[4] WHEAT (Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born in Watertown, Mass. c. 1709; died in Norwich, Conn., Jan. 27, 1758. His gravestone in the old burial ground in Norwich has this inscription:

"Here Lyes Interd ye Body: of ye Much Respected Doctr: Benjamin Wheate son to: Doctr. Samuel Wheate of: Cambridge, New England: Who after a Laborious Life: Spent to Save Mankind: Resigned his Mortal Life: In ye full hope & Expecta-: tion of a Better in ye Future: World Dyed Jany. 27.; 1758 in ye 49th year: of his age."

He married, Dec. 14, 1730 (family record, 1731 town record) Mary Sanders, born c. 1701; died Nov. 2, 1753, daughter of John and Susanna (Thompson) Sanders of Braintree, Mass; they were married in Norwich. He married 2) at Boston, Apr. 9, 1757, Catherine Darby.

He removed to Norwich about 1730, fully prepared to practice medicine; he enjoyed a fair degree of prosperity, and taught as well as practiced medicine.

He was admitted to full communion in the First Church of Norwich in 1739.

His will, dated July 18, 1757; probated Feb. 14, 1758, does not mention a wife; leaves to son Benjamin Wheat, £25 and ½ the residue real and personal; to son Samuel Wheat, the rest of his estate, real and personal. Ebenezer Backus of Norwich to be guardian of son Samuel until he reaches 21; executors, Ebenezer Backus and Joseph Griswold, both of Norwich. Wit: William Wattles (Mr.), Lydia Griswold (Mrs.), David Hunn. (Norwich Probates # 11354).

Children of Dr. Benjamin and Mary (Sanders) Wheat:

29 JOHN[4] WHEAT (Joseph[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Aug. 14, 1717, Concord, Mass.; died Jan. 28, 1784 in Lincoln, Mass. He married 1) Nov. 10, (Nov. 13, Bible record) 1740, Grace Brown by Rev. Daniel Bliss. She was born Feb. 5, 1720/1, Concord, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Potter) Brown; died Sept. 6, 1762 (in 42nd year, gravestone). He married 2) May 2, 1764, Mrs. Abigail Smith of Concord (Lincoln VR)

When the town of Lincoln was formed in 1735 he signed the protest against being set off from Concord, which was not heeded. Between 1739 and 1748 he bought four pieces of land from his father — two lots in Concord, one in Bedford and a farm, divided by the boundary between Lincoln and Concord. These farms were all left to his son Joseph who is to pay all legacies. On Aug. 13, 1773 he bought from John Hinsdale of Deerfield, Hampshire Co. for £40, 65 acres in Conway, being part of lot # 93; wit: Selah Barnard, Samuel Barnard jr. Recorded June 30, 1785 (Hampshire, Co., Mass. LR, vol. 24, p. 677) This was bought for his son Benjamin.

From a deed in 1743 he evidently occupied a part of the house in which his father lived, for he received "one half of the chimney, a door, and a foot-path".

On Jan. 1, 1760 he petitioned the court in Worcester to appoint Charles Baker guardian of all the children of his late brother Josiah Wheat "the circumstances of my house being such by reason of an aged parent I have to take care of that I cant no ways take care of them".

His will, dated Feb. 19, 1779: prov. Mar. 9, 1785 reads "I, John Wheat of Lincoln, yeoman . . . give unto Abigal Wheat, my now married wife, household goods, rooms and a garden, and yearly 100 lbs of pork, 60 lbs of beef, 6 bushels of Indian corn, 6 of rye, one basket of malt, two barrels of cider, 7 bushels of winter apples, and a sufficiency of other sauce, and of fine cut wood and brought to her door, a horse to ride, all during her widowhood and no longer. To Benjamin Wheat my son one half my wearing apparel, one half my livestock for his services and 65 acres of land in Conway. To my son Joseph Wheat all land not otherwise given provided he executes this will faithfully. To my daughter Sarah Allen the house in Concord in which she now lives. To my daughter Betty Semple only six shillings, because she has left this state and gone as a friend to the enemies of this continent, to be paid only on condition that she return a friend to America. To my daughter Lucy Underwood six shillings she having already received her portion. To my daughter Hannah Wheat as much and as good as Lucy received at her marriage, or money at her election at the time of payment, till then she shall have rooms in the home with her mother. To my daughter Mary Semple six shillings for she has gone from this state an enemy to the country. Sarah, Lucy and Hannah to share all undisposed personal property; Joseph to be sole executor. Wit: Stephen Davis, James Wright, Thads Davis. (Middlesex Co. Probates)

Children of John and Grace (Brown) Wheat:

76 i SARAH[5], born Aug. 6, 1741; died Feb. 19, 1779; married as 2nd wife in 1766, George Allen of Waltham, Mass.

281 i) GRACE BROWN[6] ALLEN, bp. Feb. 1, 1767.

George Allen married 1) Hannah , who died Jan. 19, 1766; they had Samuel, Abigail, George, Hannah, and Ruth; no Wheat blood.

30 JOSIAH[4] WHEAT (Joseph[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Mar. 11, 1719/20, Concord; died 1759.

He and Ruth Cooledge, both of Concord, married Feb. 12, 1744 by Rev. Daniel Bliss. She was born in Watertown about 1724, daughter of Jonathan and Ruth (Holland) Cooledge, and probably died also in 1759, as the following year guardians for the sons were appointed.

He was a cooper; Feb. 4, 1741, Joseph Wheat of Concord sold land in Bedford, Mass. to his son Josiah; Sept. 20, 1742, Josiah Wheat of Concord, cooper, sold 400 acres in Bedford for £21.5.0. Apr. 23, 1746 he bought of Eleazer Fletcher for £500. land in Grafton and sold 52 acres of it to Robert Flagg for £1200, Sept. 12, 1749. On Nov. 8, 1749 Joseph of Concord sells to "my beloved son Josiah Wheat of Concord, cooper", lot # 49 in Narrangansett No. 6, which became Templeton, Mass. This last tract was a part of the land awarded to Moses[2] Wheat, Joseph's uncle, for service in the Narragansett Expedition in King Philip's War. Jan. 1, 1760, Lincoln, John Wheat asked the court to appoint Capt. Charles Baker to be guardian of all the children of his late brother, Josiah Wheat of Narragansettt No. 6, as he could not take care of them; they were all under fourteen years of age by name as follows: — Samuel, Solomon, Jonathan, Joseph, Daniel. The next day John petitioned the court to appoint Joshua Hide as administrator of the estate; he was also of Narragansett No. 6.

(Worcester Co. Probates)

Oct. 30, 1761, assignment was made to Samuel Wheat, eldest son of Josiah Wheat deceased, of the whole of the said deceased's real estate situated in Templeton; 90 acres and a right in the undivided lands. On Dec. 5, 1761 Joshua Hide becomes his guardian.

Jan. 14, 1764. guardianship of Solomon Wheat, minor more than 14 yrs. granted to his uncle, Thomas Wheat, yeoman; bond £500, with Samuel Hobart, gent. and John Hale, sureties, all of Hollis; wit: Samuel Cummings jr., John Williams. (New Hampshire Probates, VIII, I)

Mar. 9, 1767. Jonas Hubbard made guardian of Joseph Wheat.

Nov. 21, 1767. John Wheat of Lincoln made guardian of Jonathan Wheat, and on Mar. 30, 1771, John, with Joseph Wheat, husbandman of Lincoln and Benjamin Wheat of New Ipswich, N. H., housewright, sureties, gives bond as guardian of Jonathan Wheat, minor in his 21st year; at Templeton. (Middlesex Co. Probates)

Apr. 25, 1769. John Butterick, yeoman, and Jonas Haywood, gent., surety, both of Concord, appointed guardian to Daniel Wheat, minor in his 15th yr. (as next above)

Early in 1755 the inhabitants of Narragansett No. 6, alarmed by the appearance of marauding Indians in a neighboring settlement, built a fort for protection in case of attack, and Sabbath worship was held there. After a few months they felt so secure that steps were taken to build a church edifice. On Dec. 10, 1755, a council "did gather a church, set apart and ordain the Rev. Daniel Pond, the first minister of this plantation". The covenant was signed by twelve men — Daniel Pond, Joshua Hyde, Josiah Wheat, David Clark, Charles Baker, David Goddard, Jacob Byam, Phineas Byam, Zacheus Barrett, Elias Wilder, Thomas Drury, and John Chamberlain.

153 i BENJAMIN[6] PARKER, born Mar. 11, 1765; died in 1807; graduate of Harvard College 1784: was a physician and lived at Weston, Mass.

Ref: Newton, Mass. VR. Parker Genealogy, 1910, p. 25.

49 SAMUEL[5] WHEAT (Dr. Samuel[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Mar. 13, 1746/7 at Newton, Mass.; died Feb. 13, 1835 ae 87 yrs. 11 mos. at Venice, Cayuga Co., N. Y. and is buried in the Stewart's Corners cemetery, Venice.

He married, July 14, 1766 in Newton, Jerusha Allen, born Aug. 20, 1746, daughter of Dr. John and Jerusha (Cook) Allen of Newton. She died Apr. 2, 1825 in her 79th year. They settled first in Providence, R. I. but after his father's death in 1770 returned briefly to Newton. They accepted £200. for the land inherited by his father's will, signing a deed to that effect June 7, 1771. The executors and appraisers seemed to have erred in his favor, for when they settled with the other heirs they were able to pay only 3/6 on the pound.

Oct. 4, 1771. Thomas Kenedy of Murrayfield, Hampshire Co., Mass. sells to Samuel Wheat of same, lot #68, 1st division — 102 acres with allowance of 60 rods for a road; signed Thomas and Jennet Kenedy; wits: Jno. Murray, Mat. Henry, Joseph Gilbert, John Crocks. (Hampshire Co. LR, Book 12, p. 370, at Springfield)

Murrayfield is now Chester.

July 6, 1773. Samuel Wheat of Murrayfield and wife Jerusha sell to Enoch Shepard of Westfield, lot #68, 1st division, lying southeasterly from the Meeting House; signed by both Samuel and Jerusha; wits: David Shepard, Abner Smith, Robt. Smith. (Same, vol. 12, p. 499)

Sept. 23, 1773. Peter Williams of Murrayfield vs. S. Wheat, late of Murrayfield, re non-payment of latter's note dated Springfield, Nov. 1, 1772; Peter is to recover £11.10.6.

(Court of Common Pleas, vol. 12, p. 97, records at Springfield)

His next move was to Bernardston (first called Fall Town). He owned land there, some of which he sold to Gershom Orvis in 1777; his final purchase there was June 18, 1781 when he bought of David Page land on the northwest branch of Fall River. On Dec. 14, 1782 he sells to John Brooks of Glastonbury (Conn.) "where sd Wheat now lives", including a dwelling house and barn, and 2 pieces of 26 acres each near-by, one being south of sd Wheat's dwelling house. (These deeds are found at Greenfield, Mass., vols. III and IV).

From Bernardston they appear to have moved to Salem, Washington Co., N. Y. He is in the census of 1790 with a family of 2 males over 16, 4 males under 16, and 6 females, listed next to his son-in-law Asa Cleveland. In 1794 he is assessed £17. on real estate and on personal £16.15/.

(N. Y. Genealogical & Biographical Record, vol. 43)

Late in life Samuel removed to Venice, Cayuga Co., N. Y. where he and his wife spent the rest of their life, probably with some of their children, as no records have been found of his owning land.

He was a soldier in the Revolution, with various service: from Aug. 1776 for 2 months as private under Capt. Morrison in Col. John Mosely's Regiment, and took part in the Battle of White Plains under Brig. Gen. Alexander McDougall. The next year he served for 6 weeks as private under Capt. Amasa Sheldon in the same Regiment. He enlisted Sept. 23, 1777, discharged Oct. 18, 1777 in the Northern Dept., Capt. Joseph Stebbins Co., with 115 miles travel home; roll sworn to at Deerfield.

In the summer of 1777 as Burgoyne was coming down the Hudson River Valley he sent a detachment to Bennington, Vt. When this news reached Deerfield, Mass. a company under Capt. Stebbins marched directly to Bennington. Samuel Wheat was a member of this company. They arrived too late for the Battle of Bennington but joined Col. David Wells' Regiment and marched to Fort Edward, later joining General Gates and were under the direct command of Benedict Arnold; the company was in the battles of Stillwater and Bemis Heights. Burgoyne surrendered Oct. 17, 1777, and the company was discharged the following day, Samuel Wheat's name being on the payroll. From the spring of 1778 he served 6 months in Capt. Cook's company, Col. William Shepard's Regt.

He received a pension, for service in the Massachusetts Militia, as a private, placed on the roll May 6, 1833 and granted from Mar. 4, 1831; he was aged 83, living in Cayuga Co., N. Y. A Revolutionary marker has been placed on his grave.

50 MARTHA[5] WHEAT (Dr. Samuel[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Apr. 11, 1749, Newton, Mass.; died Oct. 21, 1785 (ae 39. by gravestone)

Gad Williston and Patty Wheat record their marriage intentions Jan. 19, 1783 (Brookfield, Mass. VR). She was his second wife, his first being Lucy Grosvenor of Pomfret, Conn. (int. May—, 1771); she died Jan. 30, 1782 (ae 34 on gravestone). Deacon Gad Williston married 3) June—, 1788 at Springfield, widow Eunice Brewer of Springfield, who died Dec. 24, 1814. He died Sept. 11, 1825 ae 81.

Child of Deacon Gad and Martha (Wheat) Williston:

165 i POLLY[6] WILLISTON, born Nov. 30, 1783; died July 21, 1785 ae 18 months (gravestone)

By his first wife he had: Joseph, b. 1773; d. 1775; Lucy, b. 1775: twins, Hannah and Joseph, b. & d. 1778: Joseph b. 1780; d. 1833; officer in the U.S. Navy: Cloe, b. & d. 1782. (no Wheat blood).

53 JONATHAN[5] WHEAT (Salmon[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Apr. 1, 1735 at Canterbury, Conn. died Dec. 10, 1809 ae 74 yr. 8 mo., probably at Shaftsbury, Vt. though one record says at Bennington. He is buried in the cemetery at Shaftsbury Center, Vt.

He married Sarah Draper, daughter of James and Sarah (Allen) Draper of Killingly, Conn. and Shaftsbury, Vt. She was born Feb. 27, 1744/5 (Brimfield, Mass. VR); died c. 1827 in Truxton, N. Y. and is buried in the Keeney cemetery there.

Jonathan Wheat is on a tax list of June 1758 at Crum Elbow, Dutchess Co., N. Y. (Adriance Library, Poughkeepsie) and in 1765 is of Beekman's Precinct, the name of the whole district. Aug. 25, 1768 he of "Batemans" (error for Beekmans) Precinct bought for £15 of Moses Robinson of Bennington, land in Shaftsbury, N. H. (alias New York, now Vt.), and again on Dec. 3, 1768 bought for £80 from James Draper — his father-in-law — more land in Shaftsbury. Sept. 21, 1790 he again purchased land there, being called "of Bennington". In two deeds in June 1804 he sold to his son Jonathan jr of Granville, N. Y. for $800. and care for life, land in Bennington on the great road that leads to Shaftsbury. His final deed there is dated June 22, 1805 when he and Sarah sold to George Gay of Arlington for $600. (Shaftsbury LR, vols. III - VI).

The purchase of 1768 at "Shaftsbury, N. H. (alias New York, now Vermont", took place at the time when Vermont was set off from New Hampshire, and New York and Vermont both claimed a narrow strip bordering on both states and continuing south between New York and Connecticut; it was known as "The Oblong". Feeling ran high, there were mobs and riots in Bennington and elsewhere, and Jonathan was forced to leave his home for fear of bodily injury. Two affidavits by him are given in the Documentary History of the State of New York, Albany 1851, vol. IV.

Jonathan in the census of 1790 had a family of 3 males over 16, 1 under, and 2 females, and in 1800, 2 males 16-26, 1, 26-45, and 1 over 45; females 1, 10-16, 1 over 45, both times as of Bennington.

After the death of her husband Sarah (Draper) Wheat remained for a time in Bennington; in 1815 she and her son Jonathan jr. sold more of the Shaftsbury land, and on Feb. 5, 1819, Jonathan, then of Hampton, N. Y., executed a deed of gift to his mother, Sarah Wheat of Truxton, N. Y., what was probably the rest of the Vermont property. On the following July 6 Sarah sold this, 42 acres, for $400. to her son Richard Wheat of Truxton; wits: Reuben Risley, J. P., David Griswold, jr. (Shaftsbury LR, vol. VII, p. 402).

Children of Jonathan and Sarah (Draper) Wheat: record perhaps incomplete.

"Passed, an act to grant James Wheat and Ethen Bradley the exclusive privilege to manufacture Prussian Blue and Patent Yellow". (Gov't & Council of Vermont, at 2 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 30, 1811: vol. V) Mar. 5, 1814, James Wheat of Sunderland, Vt. buys land in Shaftsbury of Richard C. Phebley (? Plumley) and wife Patience.

Apr. 17, 1818. James Wheat of Shaftsbury and wife Lillis sell land to Giles Hebard for $400., being all that tract set off to Patience Plumbly, etc. Wits: Jacob Galusha, J. P., Lyr (?) W. Munroe. (Shaftsbury LR, vol. VII, p. 253) He was a Justice of the Peace.

171 + vi JONATHAN[6], born c. 1780.

55 ELISHA[5] WHEAT (Salmon[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Nov. 7, 1742 at Canterbury, Conn.; died after 1810. married Mercy , born c. 1740; died at Mt. Hope, N. Y. Feb. 27, 1834 ae 94-1-13; her gravestone in Howell's cemetery, Mt. Hope, Orange Co. is inscribed "Marcy Wheat wife of Elisha Wheat and mother of Salmon Wheat". 1771. He is on tax list at Pawling, Dutchess Co., N. Y. and in the 1790 census at Mamakating, Ulster Co. with a family of 3 males over 16, 1 under, and 3 females. In 1810 he is listed at Walkill, Ulster Co. with 1 male under 10, 1, 45 and over, 2 females 10-16, 2, 45 and over.

62 BENJAMIN[5] WHEAT (Benjamin[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Jan. 31, 1734/5; bp. Feb. 16, 1735, First Church, Norwich, Conn.

married at Norwich, Apr. 15, 1756, Elizabeth Grant of Norwich, perhaps daughter of Capt. James Grant and born Nov. 15, 1730 (Windsor, Conn. VR) They had a male child born in Norwich Aug. 30, 1756: wits: Anne Grover, Hannah Abell ye wife of John Abell; Elizabeth pleads guilty (New London County Court Files, Nov. 1756)

Benjamin Wheat and his wife joined the church at Norwich, May 27, 1759. They lived on Bean Hill, Norwich, where he was a merchant.

He was a soldier in the Revolution; in May 1760 he was made Ensign of the Train Band, 2nd Co., and unpublished records kept by Capt. Elijah Backus, 2nd Co. 20th Regt. show many entries of service by Benjamin Wheat from Apr.

1759 to Aug. 1780. Papers regarding his service in the Train Band follow:

To the Honourable General Assembly setting at Hartford ye second Thursday of May 1760 . . . Mr. Benjamin Wheat was chosen Ensign (of second company or train band in Norwich) . . . in place of Samuel Gifford Ensign being appointed Lieutt. in the Army reised by this Colony In the Last years Campaign. . . . (signed) Elijah Backus, Capt. of sd Company. Norwich May 8th 1760.

(vol. 2, Document # 263)

To Elijah Backus Esqr Captain of the 2nd Company of Foot Soldiers in the Town of Norwich ye 3rd Regiment in this Colony Greeting — Whereas Benjamin Wheat Ensign of the Company under your Comand hath apl'y for a dismission from his office as Ensign.

You are hereby Commanded after giving Legal warning to all Votars in your said Company, to meet at some time & place by you to be apointed & then & there lead them to the choice of an Ensign, & other necessary officers, & make return of your doings to the next General Assembly Given under my hand in Norwich April 4th 1769 G. Saltonstall Coll. (vol. 6, Document # 1262)

Under date of 1 July 1775 a petition to the General Assembly signed by a number of men protesting the choice of officers to the 2nd Company or trainband in the 20th regiment was not fairly or lawfully made, that persons were told that Capt. Wheat of the old 2nd Company would not take a commission of Ensign which was not true. They remonstrate and pray the said Company may be ordered to be lead to a second time to a choice of officers. Norwich 29 June 1775. Benja. Wheat (he signs with a number of others as a house holder) (vol. 11, Document # 2157)

65 SAMUEL[5] WHEAT (Benjamin[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Apr. 4, 1743; bp. Apr. 17, 1743; died Jan. 31, 1823.

married Sept. 20, 1770 at Norwich by Matthew Graves, Missioner, Sarah Deshon, born Apr. 27, 1752, daughter of John and Sarah (Starr) Deshon of New London, Conn. (for her, see Christophers Family, by John R. Totten, N. Y. Genealogical & Biographical Record, vol. 51, p. 337)

He gave 20 shillings for the first fire engine in Norwich, shortly before 1770. In May 1774 he was captain of the 2nd Company, Norwich Militia, and in July 1782 he was a member of the Association against Illicit Trade. A' few years later he removed to New London, Conn. where the 1790 census finds him with a family of 2 males over 16, 4 under 16, 3 females, and 3 slaves.

June 11, 1788 Bishop Seabury, first Bishop of Connecticut, signed a statement that Capt. Samuel Wheat of New London was a member of the Episcopal Church in that town.

May 1792, he was one of the commissioners on the Mohegan turnpike road, and the following Mar. 21, was on a committee to consider buying a burying ground; it became the 2nd burying ground, New London.

Samuel Wheat of New London was granted a large tract of Fire Lands in Ohio, at Groton, Erie Co. It was originally part of Wheatsborough.

A portrait of Mrs. Samuel Wheat, probably painted by William Johnston, appeared in the Connecticut Historical Society Bulletin, vol. 20, Jan. 1955.

Children of Samuel and Sarah (Deshon) Wheat: i-vi born at Norwich; vii-x at New London.

77 BENJAMIN[5] WHEAT (John[4], Joseph[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Apr. 1, 1744 in Concord (Bible), 1743 in Lincoln (Lincoln VR); died Aug. 17, 1817, probably at Phelps, N. Y.; buried at Orleans, N. Y.

married Nov. 27, 1766, Sarah Wright, born Oct. 27, 1747; died May 11, 1817, daughter of Deacon Henry and Esther (Adams) Wright of Westford, Mass. She is buried at Orleans also.

He was a soldier in the Revolution and gave a receipt for advance pay at Cambridge, June 22, 1775; he had various service (Mass. Soldiers and Sailors). At some time his arms became palsied, and in the roll of men of Conway fit to bear arms in 1777 he is not mentioned, so it is probable that his infirmity had already developed.

He lived at New Ipswich, N. H. from 1766 to about 1771, as in the latter year he, with his father and either brother or uncle Joseph Wheat, signed guardianship papers of his young cousin, Jonathan Wheat, son of Josiah, and was then of New Ipswich and housewright. From 1771 to 1773 he was at Westford, Mass., went thence to Conway, Mass. to 1795, and in the summer of that year removed to Phelps, N. Y.

Benjamin and his wife owned the Convenant, Sept. 6, 1767 at New Ipswich; of Conway in 1779 in his father's will, and in the census of 1790, with 2 males over 16, 1 under 16, and 6 females.

June 24, 1785, he sells to Lucius Allis of same, for £13.10/, 12 acres in Conway, part of lot # 93. (Hampshire Co. LR at Greenfield, Mass. vol. IV, 219).

84 SAMUEL[5] WHEAT (Josiah[4], Joseph[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Sept. 24, 1747, bp. Feb. 8, 1756 (Templeton, Mass. VR); died Apr. 4, 1814.
married Abigail Sabine, born Apr. 16, 1752; died Apr. 28, 1817.

Both his parents died c. 1759 and on Dec. 5, 1761 Joshua Hide was appointed his guardian. On Oct. 30, 1761 assignment was made to Samuel Wheat, eldest son of Josiah Wheat, deceased, of the whole of the said deceased's real estate situated in Templeton, 90 acres, and a right in the undivided lands.

He removed to Westminister, Vt., then claimed to be a part of New Hampshire. The governor of New York claimed the territory west of the Connecticut River as a part of New York, and the King supported his claim against New Hampshire. Nov. 1, 1770, Samuel Wheat and his neighbors to the number of 420 men addressed a petition to the King, praying for the privilege of holding the lands they had improved under grants older than the claim of New York to the territory, they "paying reasonable fees for the said permit". On Dec. 23, 1772, he was one of 160 men who petitioned Governor William Tryon of New York for the privilege of electing a representative to the General Assembly from Cumberland county. Samuel Wheat of Putney, Vt. — only a few miles from Westminister — "subject of New York" was arrested and brought to trial in Vermont on May 27, 1779 and fined £3, as one who refused to submit to the Vermont authorities. (History of Eastern Vermont, Benjamin H. Hall, 1858) married 1) Sarah Keyes, Apr. 17, 1788; she died Apr. 23, 1806; 2) Hannah Reed, born June 21, 1772; died May 11, 1860.

97 JOSIAH[5] WHEAT (Thomas[4], Joseph[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Dec. 18, 1761, Hollis, N. H.; died Mar. 14, 1828.

They lived at Hollis, N. H. until the winter of 1794 when they removed to Groton, N. H. by oxteam, the journey taking a week.

Children of Josiah and Sarah (Keyes) Wheat:

355 i SARAH[6], born Mar. 14, 1789; married Webber; one record says they lived at Groton, N. H., another at Rumney, N. H. A niece, Huldah (Wheat) McClure, told of going to Aunt Sally Webber's to see the first railroad train come in.

356 ii RUTH[6], born Apr. 24, 1791; married Esterbrook and removed to New York State.

357 iii MARY[6], born Dec. 29, 1792; married John Billings, who died before 1860. They lived in Constable, N. Y. and by 1860 were in Wisconsin. In that year she had

357 a & b a son Hiram ae c. 23 and unmarried, and 4 daughters; the youngest, Caroline married July 4, 1857 but the groom was not named. (Letter written Feb. 26, 1860 by her brother, Josiah Wheat to Dr. Thomas Wheat of Manchester, N. H.)

358 iv JOSIAH[6], born c. 1795; died 1861; He was a Calvinist preacher, and somewhat eccentric; he wrote his name WHEET for he "wished to be distinguished from the grain that grows in the field". He married Mary Ann Bradley and went to Ohio; they separated, and after wandering about the state for years, he was murdered in 1861. "His wife Mary, I suppose is still living at West Newton, Mass." (Report by . . . Bailey, 1896)

941 i) JAMES HENRY[7], was brought up by relatives, and in 1898 lived in Dayton, Ohio.

359 v ABIGAIL[6], born ; married J. R. Esterbrooks and lived in Wisconsin.

362 viii LOIS[6], born ; married Thomas Cutler of Southbridge, Mass. as his second wife; he had sons by his 1st wife, one of whom, Leonard, married LUCY ELVIRA COLBURN (952).

Children of Josiah and his second wife, Hannah (Reed) Wheat:

363 + ix JOSHUA REED[6], (WHEET) born Mar. 25, 1807; died July 1, 1879; married Huldah Kidder.

364 x BETSEY[6] (WHEET), born ; married John Bartlett; in 1830 removed to LaGrange, Missouri; had two children.

365 + xi LUCY F.[6] (WHEET), born Dec. 12, 1810; died Mar. 9, 1883; married Reuben H. Colburn.

366 + xii JOSEPH[6] (WHEET), born Feb. 19, 1813; died Dec. 4, 1874; married Lucette Kidder.

154 JERUSHA[6] WHEAT (Samuel[5], [4], [3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born April 5, 1767, probably at Newton, Mass. Her baptism is recorded there, with her brother, John Allen Wheat, but without date. She died at Jackson, Washington Co., New York, Sept. 29, 1838 ae 72 (sic). She is probably buried beside her husband but the grave is unmarked.

She married at Salem, N. Y. Dec. 4, 1785, Asa Cleveland, born Mar. 13, 1763 in Windham, Conn., son of Moses and Tabitha (Spencer) Cleveland and descendant of Moses Cleveland of Woburn, Mass. Asa died at Jackson, Aug. 17, 1824 and is buried in the old cemetery at Salem. In his family Bible he spelled his name Cleaveland.

He served in the Revolution, private in Capt. Wade's Co., Windham, Apr. 26, 1780 to Jan. 1, 1781 and enlisted again the following June for 6 months. He owned no land in Windham, and in 1785 went with his parents and their other children to Salem, N. Y. where he spent the rest of his life. In 1815 Jackson was set off at the south end of Salem. He and Jerusha must have had a brief courtship as the Clevelands did not reach Salem until Spring 1785 and he and Jerusha were married on Dec. 4 of that year. They lived next door to her father, Samuel Wheat; the house is still standing (1955) on the east side of Route #22 in Jackson and has been visited many times by their gt. gt. granddaughter (the compiler of this record).

Asa is listed as an inhabitant of Washington Co. on Dec. 24, 1789, owning lot # 250, and on Feb. 13, 1797 he buys from Joseph Younglove of Cambridge, N. Y. a tract of 142½ acres, lot #2 of the Ryer Schermerhorn Tract, Survey of 1762, later known as #1 in the Anaquashicoke Patent; bounds east on the Battenkill and extends to the present Route #22. A large rock in the river, from which he used to fish, is still called Asa's Rock. He appears in the census of 1800, 1810, and 1820, and acquired more land in the vicinity. Even before his death his sons Frederick and Rufus paid the taxes on the property which in 1825 amounted to 246 acres.

But the sons do not seem to have prospered, there are mortgages * and sales and the matter of a suit brought against them in 1836 by Abram C. Lansing. Before long the family scattered, the three sons removing to Michigan.

Children of Asa and Jerusha (Wheat) Cleveland, born at Salem, New York:

453 † i FREDERICK[7], born Aug. 24, 1787; died Sept. 17, 1838 ae 51, in Calhoun Co., Michigan — probably in Marshall. He is thought not to have married and no wife is mentioned in any of his transactions. He and Rufus held much land

* A mortgage is held in 1823 by Asa Fitch of Salem, whose History of Washington Co. in microscopic handwriting is in the library of the N. Y. Genealogical & Biographical Society, New York City.

† Surname numbers 453 to 460 is CLEVELAND.

together in the Anaquashicoke Patent, and are taxed 1818-1834. In 1836 the land owned by them was sold at Sheriff's sale.

454 + ii RUFUS[7], born Nov. 5, 1789; died before 1853; married Elizabeth Ann Warner.

455 + iii JERUSHA[7], born Sept. 29, 1791; died Nov. 23, 1889 ae 99; married James Moor.

456 iv POLLY[7], born Dec. 10, 1793; no record.

457 v OLIVER[7], born Nov. 24, 1795; died ; married Azuba Warner, daughter of Sylvester Warner of Cambridge, N. Y. and sister of Rufus' wife. He lived in Salem, in 1818 is taxed as a non-resident of Jackson on 23 acres, and appears in the 1820 census at Salem with 1 male 10-16, 3 males 18-26, 2 females under 10, 1, 10-16, 1, 16-26, and 3 engaged in agriculture. Either others were living with them or there were unrecorded deaths; only 2 daughters are given later. In 1840 Azuba and her two children, Elizabeth and Lucy, are mentioned in the will of Sylvester Warner, and on July 6, 1853 Azuba and Lucy quitclaim their shares in the estate, as of Oakland Co., Mich. Elizabeth is not mentioned.

970 i) ELIZABETH[8], probably died before 1853.

971 ii) LUCY[8], in 1853 living in Oakland Co., Mich., wife of .... Gow.

458 + vi LUCY[7], born Sept. 14, 1797; died July 30, 1890 ae 92, in Westfield, N. J.; married c. 1820, Isaac Prindle.

459 vii MARTHA[7] (PATTY), born Jan. 29, 1800; died ae 92; married ... Winchester, and lived in Louisville, Kentucky; a son and a daughter, names not known, also lived there, and another daughter, 980 i) HATTIE[8] WINCHESTER; unmarried.

460 viii HARRIET[7], born Mar. 21, 1807; no record.

The Asa Cleveland Bible (so called) was not printed until 1828. So the entries must have been made by someone else. It was owned by his oldest daughter, Jerusha (Cleveland) Moor and is now the property of the compiler.

156 HANNAH[6] WHEAT (Samuel[5], Dr. Samuel[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Jan. 7, 1771; died Sept. 4, 1842. married in 1794, Caleb Abbot and lived at Colden, Erie Co., N. Y.

1051-57 HIRAM[8], LOUISA[8], OSCAR[8], AARON E.[8], SOLOMON H.[8], WILLIAM CHANCY[8], and MARY ETTA[8]; 2 d.y.

(It seems quite sure that her husband was a Hoghteling; it is known by relatives that one of this family married and lived in Albany and had a son Hiram Hoghteling who was in the ice business with his brothers. This should not be difficult to prove by records at Albany).

474 iv THOMAS[7] ROGERS, jr. born Apr. 21, 1803; died at Union Church (now Unionville) Dec. 28, 1864; married Jan. 1, 1824, Sarah White of Knox, Albany Co; after her husband's death she moved to Ontario Co. with her son Darwin and died July 25, 1870; both are buried at New Scotland. Sarah was daughter of George and Polly (Avery) White.

1061 ii) OSCAR[8] ROGERS.

1062 iii) BELLE[8] or ISABEL ROGERS; married Ferdinand Fish; lived in Mystic, Conn.

1857 A son was Rev. PAUL ROGERS[8] FISH, Episcopal rector, ordained in Milwaukee, Wis. 1897; later at Springfield, Vt., Kingston, N. Y. and Elizabeth, N J. where he died Sept. 26, 1848; married Addie F... 3 children.

1063 iv) CATHERINE[8] or KATE ROGERS, married Sherman Paris of New York City and Charlestown, N. H.

1858 A daughter[9], married Frank Birch and died before 1929, and a son, 1859 SHERMAN[9] PARIS d.y.

476 vi HIRAM[7] ROGERS, born May 7, 1809; died Jan. 1866 in Quincy, Ill. He was a physician, graduate of Fairfield Medical College in 1832; practiced in Utica, N. Y. and in 1833 removed to Quincy, where he had a drugstore on North Front St. In 1835 he married Mary Pease.

An article by William A. Richardson, jr. in Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society, vol. 18, p. 403: July 1925, "Pen Pictures of the Central Part of the city of Quincy as it was when Douglas and Lincoln met in Debate" has "Over the Hoffman store (now at 417 Hampshire Street) Dr. Samuel W. Rogers had his residence and it was here that Douglas was entertained at dinner among congenial friends, on that 13th day of October (1858) ... Next came the Hiram Rogers drug store, where Douglas passed some of his time and met some of his friends and admirers on that day". The postage stamp issued in August 1958 by the U. S. Govt. commemorates the Lincoln-Douglas Debates.

158 SAMUEL[6] WHEAT (Samuel[5], Dr. Samuel[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Dec. 5, 1775 at Bernardstown, Mass.; drowned in the Hudson River, Sept. 29, 1827.

married Dec. 22, 1805, Martha Eliza Thaxter, born May 12, 1792; died in Scipio, Cayuga Co., N. Y. on Mar. 17, 1870; buried in Stewart's Corner cemetery, Venice, Cayuga Co.

He obtained work on the Erie Canal, and operated a canal boat; the family lived in or near Albany, and after his death, his widow and her eight children moved to Venice, where others of the family lived.

Children of Samuel and Martha Eliza (Thaxter) Wheat:

477 + i MARTHA[7], born Sept. 9, 1807; died Sept. 10, 1875; married Erastus Gibbons.

478 + ii SAMUEL[7], born July 28, 1809; died Feb. 7, 1879; married Martha M. Griggs.

480 iv EMILY[7], born Nov. 13, 1813 or '14; "no record except rumor that she married a Buckley and left no descendants."

It seems probable that this child died May 4, 1814, recorded in Bible with the family of Samuel. Her uncle, Calvin Wheat's monument in Stewart's Corner cemetery has — Almon Bulkley died Aug. 20, 1831 aged 61 years. Emily W. his wife died Jan. 26, 1899. Apparently the two Emilys were mixed by Mr. S. C. Wheat. (see 508)

481 + v HARRIET M.[7], born Feb. 25, 1816; died June 6, 1853; married Edward Aikin.

482 + vi HIRAM V.[7], Sept 18, 1817; died Sept. 20, 1892; married Martha M. Chase.

164 LUTHER[6] WHEAT (Samuel[5], Dr. Samuel[4], Dr. Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born May 18, 1788; died July 11, 1843; monument in Stewart's Corner cemetery.

married Mar. 25, 1810, Elmira Marvin, born Oct. 14, 1794 or '95; died July 18, 1856 ae 61-9-4; daughter of Timothy and Rachel (Crosby) Marvin and descendant of Reinold Marvin, from England to Connecticut.

They lived at Venice, later moving to the vicinity of Auburn,

N. Y. Possibly this should be Albany, not Auburn as recorded, as Crosby, the youngest son, wrote in 1896 that he had often heard his mother speak of living in Bethlehem, N. Y. Aug. 28, 1843: petition of Elmira Wheat of Venice, widow of Luther Wheat of Venice who died July 11, 1843, leaving: Elmira Ellsworth, wife of Daniel Ellsworth, Luther Wheat, Calvin Wheat, Caroline E. Wheat, Lysander Wheat, Edwin A. Wheat, Crosby Wheat, all of Venice, and Marvin Wheat "of some place unknown in Louisiana" and Almann Wheat of Quincy in the State of Illinois. She asks that she may be granted administration and that Amzi Wood of Scipio may be joined with her in the same; signed by her, with Samuel Wheat, Hiram V. Wheat, and Amzi Wood. (Cayuga Co. Administrations, B^2 176, Box 20).

Children of Luther and Elmira (Marvin) Wheat:

512 i ELMIRA[7], born Mar. 4, 1811, Venice; died after 1896; married Oct. 13, 1830, Daniel Ellsworth. They lived near Auburn, N. Y.; 3 children.

521 x LYSANDER B.[7], born Feb. 13, 1831; married

Malby Curry of Mount Sterling, Ill. He was a lawyer and lived in Leavenworth, Kans.

1130 i) FLORENCE[8].

1131 ii) SAMUEL[8], lawyer with his father, 1896.

522 xi ALEXANDER EDWIN[7], born Apr. 19, 1833, Venice; died Sept. 3, 1885; married Aug. 1, 1859, Mary Josephine Dewey Woodruff, daughter of Isaac Ogden and Arethusa H. (Dewey) Woodruff. Graves in the Woodruff lot, Quincy cemetery list A. E. Wheat, 1833-1885; Josephine W., wife of A. E. Wheat, 1837-1902, and May B. Wheat, 1885-1919.

He was called Edwin A. Wheat also, as in the settling of his father's estate in 1843.

"Alexander E. Wheat, a brother of Almeron, was also a prominent early member of the bar. In 1857 he was appointed city attorney, five years later .... was sent to the Legislature and was long a member of the law firm, Warren and Wheat". (Quincy and Adams County, by Collins & McCarl, vol. I, p. 162, Chicago, 1919).

1132 i) EFFIE[8], married ... Haun and lived in Chicago.

1133 ii) MAY BRANT[8], 1865-1919.

523 xii CROSBY F.[7], born Apr. 11, 1835, Venice; died Apr. 13, 1898; married Feb. 1, 1865, Mary Almeda Chandler, born Sept. 5, 1841; died 1906, daughter of Thompson and Lucy Bancroft (Towne) Chandler of Macomb, Illinois, formerly of New Hampshire.

He was a lawyer and County Judge. He was only eight years old when his father died; one by one the older brothers left home and when he was 16 he was the only son remaining at home with his mother and sister Caroline. He received only a common school education but resolved to enter a profession; having three brothers who were lawyers he decided to study medicine. His mother died at this time, the farm was sold and he and Caroline moved to Quincy, Ill. He abandoned medicine for the law, was admitted to the bar in 1860 and began to practice in Macomb. From 1889 to 1892 he practiced in Topeka, Kansas but continued to live in Macomb; was City Attorney 1866-'70; State Attorney for McDonough county, 1872-1876, and County Judge 1894. He was a stanch Republican.

1135 i) LUCY ALMEDA[8], born July 7, 1866; married Lewis H. Piper of Denver, Colo.

1136 ii) MARY ELMIRA[8], born June 29, 1869; married William Richard Jenkins of Macomb.

1137 iii) THOMPSON F. [8], born Dec. 18, 1871; was a dentist in El Paso, Texas.

166 RICHARD[6] WHEAT (Jonathan[5], Salmon[4], Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born c. 1758, probably in Shaftsbury, Vt.; died in 1827 in Truxton, N. Y; he and his wife are buried in the Keeney cemetery, Cuyler, N. Y.

married Jane (called Jittie) Richards, born c. 1769 in Connecticut.

It is not known when he removed to Truxton, N. Y. but on June 16, 1809, Elkanah Watson of Pittsfield, Mass. sells to Richard Wheat of Truxton, lot 56 in late town of Fabius, Onondaga Co., now in Truxton, Cortland Co. 106 acres for $370. He appears to have been in Washington Co. before that, as the 1790 census gives him at Whitehall with a family of 1-1-2, and in 1800 at Granville with 1 male under 10; 1, 26-45; 4 females under 10; 2, 10-16; 1, 26-45.

July 6, 1819, Richard Wheat of Truxton buys 42 acres in Shaftsbury, Vt. from his mother, Sarah Wheat of Truxton, for $400 (Shaftsbury LR, vol. 7,402) and on June 13, 1824 sells the same to Ebenezer Martin of Shaftsbury for $80. (Same, vol. 8,191).

His will, dated Feb. 24, 1827: rec. Mar. 5, 1827, leaves land to wife Jittie; to son James D. $10; sons Hiram, Horace R. and Salmon to divide the farm equally; the 5 daughters get $10 each — Charity Freeman, Orillah Hills, Aravilla Whitmarsh, Lois Cornwell and Jerusha Dart. Executors, Samuel Freeman, Hiram Wheat, Horace R. Wheat; wits: Obadiah Freeman, David Richards, Jehiel Dart. (Cortland Co. Wills, vol. 3,185) The will is indexed as above but is not there, and the original was finally found filed with the inventory of the estate.

Aug. 28, 1827, "I, Horace R. Wheat, one of the executors of the will of Richard Wheat do submit this inventory of his estate . . . taken on March 15, 1827 by James Harris and Jesse Blanchard"; it includes a dictionary, a geography and a psalm book beside a large amount of household goods and farm equipment and animals. He had more wordly goods than most of his neighbors of that time.

Children of Richard and Jittie (Richards) Wheat:

524 + i CHARITY[7], born Dec. 6, 1788; died Nov. 19, 1866; married Samuel Freeman.

691 vi WILLIAM GRANT[7], born Nov. 30, 1802.
Jan. 1, 1805. Baptized Mary (sic), Hannah, Eliza, Fanny, and William Grant, children of William and Mary Wheat. (Later History of 1st Church, New London, by Rev. S. Leroy Blake, p. 549. 1900).

220 JAMES[6] WHEAT (Benjamin[5], [4], Samuel[3], Joshua[2], Moses[1]), born Sept. 13, 1776 (Bible); died Aug. 10, 1852 in 76th year, near Crawfordsville, Indiana; buried in old Union cemetery there.
married Dec. 22, 1804, Mary Tibbles, born Feb. 29, 1784; died Apr. 1843 in 56th year in Butler Co., Ohio (Bible). (Beers Atlas says died 1842 ae 59 yrs.)
His mother died when he was very young and his father a few years later, after which the family was scattered. He was at Phelps, N. Y. before moving to Indiana. 1850 census gives him ae 72 and living with his son George in Walnut Township, Montgomery Co., Ind.

Mary Tibbles' grandfather was ... Harrison of South Farms, Conn., brother of Benjamin Harrison, the Signer.

Children of James and Mary (Tibbles) Wheat:

692 i LOUISA[7], born Mar. 14, 1806; married Feb. 28, 1828, William Peterson of Lebanon, Warren Co., Ohio.

married at Rome, Dec. 1803, Lucy Butts, born 1787; died Feb. 1861, daughter of John Butts.

The youngest of ten children, he was orphaned when very young, and at seven years was apprenticed to Capt. Lovett of Lisbon (Conn.?) who did no more for the boy than the law required. When he came of age he returned to Norwich and soon after was persuaded by Col. D. W. Knight to emigrate to Rome where many others from Norwich had already gone. So in 1801 with $3.00, a gun and a pack on his back he made the journey on foot, seeing Indians and wild animals west of Albany. He cleared land for Col. Knight, returning to Norwich in the autumn of 1802 and carrying letters from the settlers to their relatives in Connecticut; one was to John Butts, and when it came spring, he and his family, with Grant, set out for Rome.

In December 1803, he and Lucy were married and lived happily for fifty-eight years. He was a soldier in the War of 1812 and marched to Sacketts Harbor, but was taken sick and was discharged.

Dec. 7, 1806. He bought land in Rome from Benjamin Hastings and wife Mehitable of Suffolk Co., N. Y. (Oneida Co., LR, book 14, p. 395). On Oct. 7, 1856, Grant Wheat and wife Lucy, with Benjamin Wheat and wife Almira (his eldest son), all of Rome, deed land in Rome to the Wright Settlement cemetery. (Same, book 199, p. 295).

Two weeks after his eighty-first birthday he fell dead in the street near his home, his only other illness having been when he was a soldier.

Aug. 1, 1861. Benjamin Wheat and wife Almira deed to heirs of Grant and Lucy Wheat, who were Elizabeth M. Beadle, Sarah T. Tuttle, Susan K. Wheat, Lydia A. French, Henrietta H. Kirkland, and Frances B. Benedict, land in Floyd, N. Y. (Same, book 232, p. 340). Jan. 3, 1863, Susan K. Wheat, Henrietta H. Kirkland, Henry L. Kirkland, her husband of Rome, Betsey M. Beadle and Amos her husband of Oswego Co., Sarah T. Tuttle and Lyman her husband of Panfarr (PawPaw) Mich., Frances B. Benedict and Lewis her husband of Brimfield, Ill., and Lydia French of Grange, Ill., heirs of Grant Wheat, late of Rome, deed land in Rome to Delos G. Wilson. (Same, book, 244, p. 300).

In 1921 she wrote that she had had the Wheat cradle blanket and had just given it to the wife of her (half) brother John. The tradition is that a King of France offered a prize to the one raising the best crop of wheat; a man named Samuel was the winner, the King gave him the name Wheat and an embroidered cradle blanket which was to descend from generation to generation to the son named Samuel. As this must have happened well before the Wheat family as we know it became English, one can only marvel at the durability of the material!

to his sister Julia that he had arrived ten days before, that it was very warm and "it has been awful lonesome for the last week . . . They have the most students here now that they ever had at any one time in the world. I attended church twice last Sunday and this morning and I suppose there were about three thousand there . . . There is one hundred and twenty five in their choir with two violins, one bass viol, claronett flute and melodrium . . . Every night at six O'Clock all the students are required to attend prayer meeting and it is a sight worth seeing to see them all marching from the hall about nine hundred or more, and in church it almost makes you dizzy to look across the church to see so many bonnets trimmed with so many differently colored ribbons and fans agoing all the time. It made my eyes ache this morning."

kins Pettingill, born at Newbury Apr. 19, 1812; died July 27, 1903, daughter of Moses and Mary (Perkins) Pettingill of Newburyport, Mass. The Lowell, Mass. VR give the marriage intentions of Abijah of Lowell and Priscilla of Newburyport as Aug. 26, 1832.

He was a Baptist minister and physician, spoke French and German fluently and knew Latin, Greek and Hebrew, though he had little schooling. As a lad in Essex, Conn. he learned French from a tailor in exchange for English, and when the tailor moved to French Canada, Abijah went with him, and later preached to French Canadians in their own tongue.

In 1835 he was in Glastonbury, and soon after was in charge of a Methodist church there; in July 1838 he was in Willimantic, then pastor of Baptist churches in Clinton and in Branford, Conn. In November 1848 he was called to the North Baptist Church in New York City. While there an epidemic of cholera occurred, and on account of overwork in caring for the sick during a very hot summer, he broke down and was forced to take a vacation. On his return he resigned and became pastor of the Second Baptist Church in Philadelphia in 1853. Being injured in a railroad accident, he spent several years in Georgia and Alabama for his health, going then to the Baptist Church in New Britain, Pa., remaining to about the close of the Civil War. When party feeling in his congregation ordered him not to pray for the President of the United States he resigned his charge. He organized a church in Coatesville, Pa. and was for a short time connected with churches in Milton, Watsontown before settling at Sunbury. Soon after he retired as a preacher and practiced medicine until 1876 when he had a stroke of paralysis.

C. and was pastor of the 1st Baptist Church at Greensboro, N. C. In 1884 they went to Morocco as missionaries to the Mohammedans; she had studied at the Woman's Medical College in Philadelphia and proved a valuable aid in the Mission. They were not sent out by any organization but when they reached England, the North African Mission Society to the Berbers promised them a house but no further support. They had with them their nine children and an adopted daughter, "Mamie" Dyson.

In 1889 on account of overwork and illness, Mr. Baldwin resigned, took the four younger children and settled in Jerusalem, Palestine; in 1921 he and the daughter Anita were still there. In 1890 Mrs. Baldwin wrote a tragic letter to her sister: "I cant remember, but suppose I told you I was going to the Woman's College this year" — she was back in Philadelphia — "trying to drown my heartache in study but tis uphill work. And doctor told me this morning I was far more fit for the Hospital than the college. We have sixteen lectures a week besides all other work which will increase from week to week but I thought this was the best use I could put Uncle C's money to. It will about consume it by the time the year is finished and if Ned's poisin (sic) ladened letters dont stop I may have to give up the attempt here". In 1900 she went to South Africa; in 1904 she spent five months in Jerusalem in charge of the Shemlin Training School for Syrian girls, in the Lebanon mountains, and under the British Syrian Mission. After a few years there she returned to the mission in Africa, working there until 1917 when she retired.

"Uncle C's money", to which she refers, was a legacy of $500. left her by her father's brother, Cornelius Richardson Wheat.

He was a painter and decorator and lived in Oberlin, Ohio after leaving Vermont. His daughter, Marrietta Wheat Danforth in 1896 wrote to Silas C. Wheat of the move to Ohio. "William Wheat started from St. Albans, Vt. with two spans of horses and double wagons early in the spring of 1834 with my two brothers and uncle Otis Wheat and two other men to come to Cleveland, Ohio, but leaving his family to come later by other conveyance. They were over three weeks getting to Cleveland. The cholera raged there all that summer, which delayed the family until fall. The picture is as clear before my eyes as if but yesterday. I wasn't twelve for I came for half fare.

The first of October we started; the grand old hills around St. Albans were white with snow. All were seated in a double wagon with not very limber springs for the ride of three miles to the bay — then by steamboat to Whitehall having a very boisterous passage. From there to Buffalo by canal boat in four or five days. Then another steamboat — the Erie — heavily laden and a rough sea. We nearly perished and I need not say how glad we were to set foot on terrafirma once more. Cleveland was a place of six thousand inhabitants. There were no fine viaducts across the river — only a floating bridge lay on the water. There were only three churches. . . "

FRANCIS WHEAT OF MARYLAND AND DESCENDANTS

1 FRANCIS[1] WHEAT was born probably between 1690 and 1705 in England. Little has as yet been discovered about him, his ancestry in England, where and when he was born, or when he was married and to whom. Descendants believe that he came from England in 1724.

It is known, however, that in 1752 he leased from Benedict Calvert a tract of land in Prince George County, Maryland, for the term of his natural life and the lives of his sons, John and Francis jr. The land was in that part of the county that later became the District of Columbia; he named his homestead Cool Spring Plantation, now the site of the Navy Yard in Washington.

In 1753 he leased to his son John 100 acres of the plantation and in 1769 another 100 acres to his son Francis jr. Whether there were more children is not known.

Known children of Francis Wheat:

2 + i JOHN[2], born perhaps around 1730 and in Prince George Co. He married Mary Mulliken.

3 + ii FRANCIS[2] jr. born perhaps around 1745.

2 JOHN WHEAT[2] (Francis[1]), born perhaps around 1730 in Prince George Co.; married Mary Mulliken and lived on Cool Spring Plantation, 100 acres of which had been leased him in 1753 by his father. In the 1790 census he had 3 males over 16, 3 under 16, 4 females and 2 slaves.

Children of John and Mary (Mulliken) Wheat:

4 + i JAMES MULLIKEN[3].

5 + ii THOMAS[3].

6 + iii JOHN jr[3].

7 + iv JOSEPH[3].

8 + v BENONI[3].

9 vi MARY[3], married Thomas B. Moreland, Oct. 17, 1799.

10 vii ANN[3], married Horatio Moore, Aug. 10, 1803.

11 + viii ELIZABETH[3], married Daniel Page.

12 ix REBECCA[3], married . . . Bell of Wheeling, West Va.

3 FRANCES[2] WHEAT jr. (Francis[1]), born perhaps around 1745; of Cool Spring Plantation, Prince George Co., his father having leased him 100 acres in 1769. He is probably the one who married Sarah Upton, Nov. 1, 1780. In the 1790 census he had 2 males over 16, 5 males under 16, 3 females and 5 slaves. (These figures include himself and his wife, of course).

Children of Francis jr. and ? Sarah (Upton) Wheat: order uncertain.

13 + i JESSE[3], married ? Sarah Soper.

14 ii SARAH[3], married Nov. 3, 1789, Jesse Hardy, St. John's Parish.

6 JOHN[3] WHEAT jr. (John[2], Francis[1]), of Cool Spring Plantation, Washington. Married Dec. 3, 1801, Mary Noland; they are both buried in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington. In 1793 the Commissioners of the city of Washington sold to James Greenleaf 3000 public lots in the newly-plotted Capital for 25 pounds for each lot; he agreed to build ten houses each year, thinking that when the Government was established there in 1800 there would be a great rush to settle in the new city. A syndicate was formed, controlling over 7200 lots, and a row of houses was built on 4th Street SW. the first row in Washington. It was long known as Wheat Row from John Wheat who bought and occupied the north house, the original tenants of the others being Judge Cranch, Capt. Duncanson, and Samuel Eliot. The houses are now numbered 1315 to 1319 Fourth St. SW (from an article "Wheat Row, the Oldest Row of Buildings in Washington", in the Washington Times, Dec. 6, 1903). Three of the houses were owned and occupied later by the Barney Neighborhood House.

25 Rev. JOHN THOMAS[4] WHEAT (Thomas[3], John[2], Francis[1]), born Nov. 15, 1801 at Cool Spring Plantation, now Washington, D. C.; died Feb. 2, 1888 at Salisbury, N. C.; married Mar. 10, 1825, Selena Blair Patten, born Sept. 12, 1805 (For her, see Americans of Royal Descent, 1883, p. 162). They are both buried in Salisbury (statement by a daughter) though the Patten Genealogy, 1908, says they spent their last years in Chapel Hill and are buried there.

He was an Episcopal clergyman, Knight Templar, Knight of the Red Cross, Knight of Malta, and 32nd degree F.&A.M. His daughter says he was the first white child born in Washington after the city became the seat of government for the United States. He studied for the ministry under Rev. Dr. Wilmer at Alexandria, and at the same time opened a successful private school. In 1825 he was admitted to Christ Church by Bishop Moore, and in 1826 made a presbyter by Bishop Kemper at St. Paul's, Baltimore. In 1827 he became rector of a church in Wheeling; 1835-'38, rector of St. Paul's, New Orleans; 1839-'49 at Nashville; 1849 to '60 Professor of Rhetoric at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; 1860-'67 at Little Rock, Arkansas; 1867-73 rector of St. Lazarus, Memphis, Tenn. He wrote "Preparation for the Holy Communion", was often delegate to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, and the University of Nashville conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1846.

A nephew, Stanley H. Wheat wrote in 1922 that his uncle had written to them for a parchment showing a land grant of Chinkapin Hundred, Battle Old Field, Maryland and giving a brief history of the Wheat family for 230 years, but the document could not be found.

Children of Rev. John Thomas and Selena Blair (Patten) Wheat:

28 JAMES SANDERS[4] WHEAT (Thomas[3], John[2], Francis[1]), born May 9, 1810 on Cool Spring Plantation; died Sept. 24, 1874 at Wheeling, West Va.; married at Wheeling, Elizabeth Johnson Dorsey, daughter of Ely Dorsey of Bloomsburg, Md.

His boyhood was spent on the homestead in the Navy Yard; he studied law at Annapolis under Judge Murray and was admitted to the bar before the autumn of 1830, living meanwhile in the Judge's family. While there, General Lafayette came to this country and was entertained by the Judge, in 1824 or '25, and James was introduced to him.

In the summer of 1830 he set out to join his brother Samuel at St. Louis, who was a trader with Santa Fe, New Mexico but when he reached Wheeling he found the river closed by ice, and while waiting for Spring he was appointed Town Clerk and was practicing law. He did not continue the journey to St. Louis but became a prominent figure and maker of history in Wheeling and western Virginia.

In 1861 he was Adjt. General and on July 8, President Lincoln wrote from the Executive Mansion to the "Hon. Sec. of War, My Dear Sir. Please lose no time in giving an interview to Adjt. Genl. Wheat of Western Virginia and furnishing him, if possible, with what arms, equipage etc. etc. he needs. This is very important and should not be neglected or delayed. Yours truly A. Lincoln.

At James Wheat's death a long article appeared in The Intelligencer of Wheeling, on Sept. 24, 1874.

He was a soldier in the 49th Virginia Infantry, Confederate army and was severely wounded in the Battle of Seven Pines alias Fair Oaks, 1862. When he recovered three months later in Richmond, his right leg was shortened by several inches. In 1864 while on a visit home he was captured by cavalry scouts of the northern army, was taken to Washington and later sent to Fort Warren, Boston, Mass. On his release on June 14, 1865 he returned to their ruined plantation, and repaired and operated a mill on the place. In 1867 he removed to California and was a real estate broker, notary, and Commissioner of Deeds in San Francisco.

On May 29, 1893 a letter was printed in the "Bulletin" of San Francisco, written to Charles Dunnington Wheat by W. R. Craig of Royalton, Wis. Craig had been a soldier in the northern army in June 1862, was taken ill near Quantico Creek, and after lying on the ground all night, was taken to Dr. Wheat's yard by some of his comrades. They were about to move out but Craig was too sick to be moved, the Doctor examined him and invited him to remain there until recovered, living in the house with the family, and when he could travel the Doctor gave him a remaining old horse and himself guided Craig by roads where he would be least apt to fall into Confederate hands. Craig never forgot this kindness by Dr. Wheat and his wife, and had made attempts to get in touch with them after the war, but was told they had moved away.

"Major Bob Wheat", soldier, knight errant, filibuster. In 1845 he was a law student in Memphis, Tenn. but when the call came for volunteers for the Mexican War he was the first in Memphis to enlist.

His sister, Mrs. Shober, wrote as follows on May 20, 1896: "The eldest son of Rev. John Thomas and Selena Blair (Patten) Wheat whose life was most eventful and romantic. Entering the army at nineteen he fought gallantly all through the war with Mexico. After that war was ended he remained in Mexico, giving his services to the Liberals, entering the city of Mexico with two victorious armies — first with Gen. Scott, afterward with Alverary.

While still in Mexico he heard that Walker, his old friend and classmate, was in dangerous condition in Central America. He organized a relief force and went to the rescue, but was captured by the English and failed in the attempt. He then went with Lopez in the first expedition against Cuba.

The expedition failed, and they escaped with great difficulty. He then went to Italy and there gave his services to Garibaldi. In this war he was called the "Murat of America" on account of his perfect fearlessness on the field of battle. Last of all he gave his best and bravest service to the Confederate army and after 11 months of unusual gallantry he laid down his life at Gains Mill, June 27, 1862".

His monument in Hollywood cemetery, Richmond, bears this inscription: "Chatham Roberdeau Wheat, son of Rev. J. T. and Selena Patten Wheat born Alexandria Virginia April 9, 1826; Soldier of Freedom; Col. in U. S. Army in Mexico under Gen. Scott, 1847; Commissioned Col. by Junta in Cuban War with Spain; Champion of Italian Liberty and General under Garibaldi; Member of Bar & Legislature of Louisiana 1848; Major Confederate States Army; Organized and Commanded battalion "Louisiana Tigers". APPENDIX A

JERUSHA ALLEN (1746-1825), wife of SAMUEL WHEAT of the fifth generation in this country, lies beside her husband in a quiet, overgrown burying ground in Cayuga County, New York. Her husband had been a soldier in the Revolution, and they and their growing family of ten children had during the years migrated gradually from eastern Massachusetts into central New York, where both died and are buried. Jerusha probably lived the life of her time and station, and until about twenty years ago her present-day descendants in the vicinity knew little or nothing about her, certainly nothing of her amazingly distinguished ancestry. One wonders whether she had the faintest knowledge of it herself; she probably knew a few generations back, in this country, but very likely nothing of her ancestors abroad.

Her father, Dr. John Allen (1718-1758) of Newton, Massachusetts, was son of John Allen, a Boston merchant whose parentage has proved baffling but whose wife was daughter of the third Dr. John Clarke, graduate of Harvard in 1687, Speaker of the Massachusetts House, and grandson of an earlier John who was the first of a line of seven generations of Dr. John Clarkes; he performed the first trepanning operation in this country, and his portrait, holding a skull and instrument is now owned by the Massachusetts Medical Association in Boston; he died in 1664. The wives of these three John Clarkes belonged to Boston families — Shrimpton, Oliver, Newdigate, Saltonstall and Bulkeley. On her mother's side Jerusha had Cooks, Flaggs, Ripleys, Hobarts, and Bradfords, her great-grandmother being Hannah Bradford, granddaughter of Governor William Bradford of Plymouth.

On the other side of the Atlantic Jerusha's ancestors are traced through Charltons and Grosvenors to Elena de Quincy, granddaughter of Saher de Quincy, Earl of Winchester and Magna Carta Baron; to William de Longespee, Earl of Salisbury and natural son of King Henry II, whose parents were Geoffrey Plantagenet, Count of Anjou and Queen Matilda of England; to William the Conqueror; to Alan, Lord of Galloway, whose wife was daughter of Reginald, Lord of the Isles; to Ethelred the Unready, King of England, who married Emma, daughter of Richard the Fearless, duke of the Normans. Ethelred and Emma were parents of Edward the Confessor, and after Ethelred's death she married Canute, King of Norway and Denmark, and later of England. Other ancestors in Britain were Alfred the Great, Kenneth MacAlpin of Scotland; Fergus I; Ungust, King of the Picts, and Cerdic, King of Wessex.

On the Continent the ancestry is no less spectacular, including the Capetian Kings of France; and to Pepin d'Heristal through his son, Charles Martel to Charlemagne; to Henry I whose wife was Anne of Kiev, descendant of Ruric, Grand Duke of Novgorod and Kiev; to Baldwin, Count of Flanders; to Olave III, first Christian King of Sweden; Henry I of Germany; the Italian Dukes of Spoleto; Dukes of Burgundy; to St. Olaf of Norway; to Kings of Jutland — Denmark and Norway; and many noble families of France. One could go on indefinitely. And all this belonged to Jerusha Allen Wheat of Venice, New York. What would she have thought?

There are many sources for this information by students of medieval genealogy, and a few are:

History of Boston, Samuel G. Drake, 1856.

Bulkeley Genealogy, Donald Lines Jacobus., 1933.

Plantagenet Ancestry, Turton, 1928: charts giving the ancestry of Elizabeth, daughter of Edward IV and wife of Henry VII of England, "Heiress of the Plantagenets".

The Origin of Capet and Plantagenet, G. A. Moriarty, New England Historic Genealogical Register, vol. 107.

The Shorter Cambridge Medieval History, 2 vols. 1952.

APPENDIX B

In 1921 Lewis McLellan Wheat (1084) instigated a suit to settle the estate of his uncle, Samuel Wheat (478) of Scipio, New York, who had died childless and intestate on Feb. 7, 1879, leaving a widow, Martha M. Wheat (who had recently died, in 1920), brothers Hiram V. and William H. Wheat, and the heirs of his brother, John A. Wheat, and sisters Martha Gibbons, Harriet Aikin, and Elizabeth Williamson, deceased.

The document sent to the heirs in 1921 lists 57 persons in addition to several wives who are named, and it has been of the greatest help in identifying the members of this large family.

INDEX

This index includes all names appearing in the book, except military officers under whom service was given, and business firms. The wives of Wheat men are given under both maiden and married name.

The date of birth of those named Wheat or Wheet, where known, is given in ( ) but if the date is uncertain or is of baptism merely, it appears as ( )?.

Each descendant of Moses Wheat and of Francis Wheat has its individual number, but the figures in the index refer to the page on which the name appears. Names on pages 346-370 are descendants of Francis Wheat of Maryland.
